To those who do not believe in women holding public office, I will say, remember I am a tax payer the same as a man, that I must live and support my children, and if you don't think I, being a we man, should have an equal right this office as Mr. Alderman, sure you do think my children shoul have equal chrinces in life with his son. Believing this you will cast your vote for me next July and enable me to meet my obligations and live at home until my son is old enough to assist me to rear and educate my little girl.

Assuring you I will greatly a preciate your vote and influence, !
